

CALIFORNIA LEGAL AFFAIRS

Due September 10, 2019

Prepared by:

This report provides an overview of just some of the efforts being taken to protect the rights of California gun owners. Although litigation plays an extremely important role in the fight for the right to keep and bear arms, there are many other tremendous and equally important endeavors throughout California and across the nation.

Protecting the Second Amendment requires an enormous amount of resources and involvement in all levels of California's government, including all 58 counties, all 482 municipalities, and all state and local agencies tasked with enforcing the myriad of complex and ever-expanding gun laws.

The digital version of this report, complete with links to relevant documents and additional information, can be found on NRA-ILA's California webpage at www.standandfightCalifornia.com and CRPA's webpage at www.crpa.org.

Challenge to California's Ammunition Sales Restrictions	Rhode v. Becerra	The case was filed on April 26, 2018, in response to Proposition 63 and Senate Bill 1235's restrictions regarding the sale and transfer of ammunition in California. The lawsuit challenges these restrictions as a violation of the Second Amendment, Commerce Clause, and Equal Protection Clause of the United States Constitution, as well as a violation of the Firearm Owner's Protection Act.	The State filed a motion to dismiss which the District Court denied. The case is now in the discovery phase of litigation. In August, Plaintiffs asked the court (Hon. Judge Benitez) to preliminarily enjoin the new ammo laws. Judge Benitez has not yet ruled.
Challenge to California's "assault weapon" restrictions.	Rupp v. Becerra	The case was filed on April 24, 2017, in response to SB 880 and AB 1135. It challenges California's entire "assault weapon" ban as violating the Second Amendment and due process and takings clauses of the U.S. Constitution. Plaintiffs filed a preliminary injunction motion to prevent the State from requiring individuals to provide the date they acquired their firearms and the name and address of the person from whom they acquired them, as a condition of registration, but that motion was denied on May 9, 2018.	Plaintiffs and the State filed cross-motions for summary judgment in late March 2019. The federal court heard oral argument on May 31, 2019. Plaintiffs also filed multiple motions to disqualify several of the State's expert witnesses. However, on July 22, 2019, the court granted the State's motion for summary judgment, ending the case in the State's favor. Plaintiffs appealed to the 9th Circuit on August 27, 2019. Plaintiffs' appeal brief is currently due December 5, 2019.

Challenge to California's ban on standard capacity magazines	Duncan v. Becerra	The case was filed in response to SB 1446 and Prop 63. It challenges California's ban on the acquisition and possession of magazines over ten rounds. On June 29, the district court granted plaintiffs' motion for a preliminary injunction, halting enforcement of the newly enacted possession ban while the case is litigated. The State immediately appealed the injunction order. In July 2018, the Ninth circuit upheld the issuance of the injunction.	The federal District Court, where Judge Benitez presides, granted Plaintiffs' summary judgment motion, which permanently enjoined Penal Code Sec. 32310 on March 29, 2019. This legalized the acquisition of standard-capacity magazines. However, the court entered a stay of the injunction, effective 5:00 p.m. on April 5, 2019. The State has appealed to the 9th Cir.
Challenge to DOJ's recently enacted "assault weapon" registration regulations	Villanueva v. Becerra	The case was filed on September 8, 2017, in response to California DOJ adopting regulations concerning newly classified "assault weapons" under SB 880 and AB 1135. It challenges the regulations under California's Administrative Procedure Act because they were enacted without legislative authority and without any input from members of the public.	On May 30, 2018, the court issued an order upholding the regulations as valid. Plaintiffs appealed and filed their opening brief in California's 5th District Court of Appeal in late March 2019. The State filed its' appeal brief on August 9, 2019. Plaintiffs' brief is due October 8, 2019.
Challenge to CA and Los Angeles firearm carry restrictions that prohibit both open and concealed carry	Flanagan v. Becerra (Formerly Flanagan v. Harris)	The case was filed on August 17, 2016, as a direct response to Peruta. It seeks to force the court to decide whether it is willing to uphold a complete prohibition on the right of law-abiding citizens to carry a firearm for self-defense. The parties filed cross-motions for summary judgment. In May 2018, the court issued a decision granting Defendant's motion for summary judgment.	The 9th Cir. rejected the State's petition to have the case heard initially by an 11-judge "en banc" panel along with the Young v. Hawaii lawsuit. However, instead of allowing the case to proceed, the 9th Cir. Stayed the case on July 30, 2019 pending the outcome of Young v. Hawaii.

Challenges DOJ's use of DROS surplus to fund APPS as an illegal tax	Gentry v. Becerra (Formerly Gentry v. Harris)	Plaintiffs filed an amended complaint alleging that the DROS fee is an invalid tax. On August 9, 2017, the district court issued a ruling granting Plaintiffs' request to prohibit DOJ from using DROS fees to fund unrelated law enforcement efforts and requiring DOJ to perform its statutorily required review of the current $19 fee to determine whether it is "no more than necessary to fund" DOJ's costs for processing DROS transactions.	Trial was held in January of 2019. The Court recently entered an order that will be incorporated into a forthcoming final judgment upholding the DROS fee as a legitimate regulatory fee. Plaintiffs argue that the Court's finding contradicts established law regarding regulatory fees. Plaintiffs started the appeal process by filing a notice of appeal on June 4, 2019.
Vagueness challenge to (AB 962's "handgun ammunition" sales registration requirement and mail order ban Challenge to Los Angeles' refusal to disclose public records regarding firearms in law enforcement custody	Parker v. California CRPA v. City of Los Angeles	In December 2016, because of Prop 63, the California Supreme Court dismissed its review of a Court of Appeal opinion affirming the trial court's order striking down AB 962. The Court of Appeal's decision is now the final opinion, and plaintiffs are seeking their attorneys' fees against the State. CRPA filed a lawsuit challenging Los Angeles City's refusal to disclose records related to secretly obtained disposition orders used by LAPD to justify the destruction of firearms in its possession. Rather than litigate, the City agreed to settle the lawsuit and turn over the records to CRPA.	After the trial court partially granted the plaintiffs' motion for attorneys' fees for work in the trial court, parties negotiated an agreement regarding a total fee award. Parties are now coordinating the execution of that negotiated agreement. The City agreed to pay $35,000 to cover CRPA's attorneys' fees as a result of the lawsuit. The case is now closed.

NRA and CRPA also provide consulting advice and prepare amicus curiae or “friend of the court” briefs in firearm and Second Amendment related cases.

California Handgun Roster	Pena v. Lindley (Horan)	The federal district court upheld the Roster in 2015. Plaintiffs appealed, and oral arguments were held on March 16, 2017. NRA and CRPA filed an amicus brief in the case on July 27, 2015. On August 3, 2018, the Ninth Circuit upheld the Roster.	Plaintiffs docketed their petition for writ of certiorari to the U.S. Supreme Court on January 3, 2019. It is now up to the Supreme Court to determine whether it will take or decline the case.
1st Amendment challenge to handgun ad prohibition	Tracy Rifle and Pistol v. Becerra (Formerly Tracy Rifle and Pistol v. Harris)	In July 2015, the district court denied a request to prohibit enforcement while the case proceeds. That decision was appealed, and in February 2016 the 9th Circuit upheld the lower court’s order within two weeks of oral arguments. However, following the appeal of the preliminary injunction, the district court issued a permanent injunction.	As a result of the permanent injunction, California is now prohibited from enforcing its arbitrary and ineffective handgun ad ban.

State Court challenge to California's micro-stamping requirements	NSSF v. California	In December 2016, the California Court of Appeal issued a ruling in favor of NSSF, allowing the lawsuit to proceed in the lower court. But in June 2018, the California Supreme Court reversed , upholding the trial court's judgment in favor of the State. NSSF Petitioned the Supreme Court to reconsider its opinion, but that petition was denied in August 2018.	As a result of the California Supreme Court opinion, the case is now closed. Another case challenging the microstamping requirement/roster, Pena v. Lindley (Horan) , may be heard by the Supreme Court.
Challenge to San Jose's refusal to return seized firearms	Rodriguez v. City of San Jose	Following the City of San Jose's refusal to return firearms seized by law enforcement, a lawsuit was filed alleging violations of the Second, Fourth, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendments. In September 2017, a federal district court upheld the City's refusal as constitutional. Plaintiff has appealed, with CRPA filing an important amicus brief on March 6, 2018.	On January 14, 2019, the 9 th Cir. heard oral argument. On July 23, 2019, the 9 th affirmed the district court's summary judgement ruling in favor of the City of San Jose. Plaintiff is now seeking to have the case re-heard by an en banc panel.

NRA and CRPA also litigate and assist in critical Second Amendment cases across the country that could set precedent for future challenges to California gun laws.

Challenge to federal firearm restriction due to non-violent, decades-old felony conviction	Sessions v. Hatfield	Having suffered a lifetime firearm restriction due to a non-violent felony, Plaintiff filed suit challenging the restriction as unconstitutional. On April 26, 2018, a federal district court struck down the restriction as unconstitutional as applied to the Plaintiff. The government has appealed, with CRPA filing an important amicus brief on October 12, 2018.	The 7 th Circuit court of appeals issued an opinion on June 6, 2019 reversing the district court's favorable ruling. On August 7, 2019, the 7 th Circuit denied Plaintiff's petition to re-hear the case en banc .

Challenges Washington D.C.'s "good reason" requirement for the issuance of a CCW permit	Grace v. District of Columbia	On July 25, 2017, the D.C. Circuit declared Washington D.C.'s "good reason" requirement for the issuance of a CCW was a violation of the Second Amendment. The Court also issued a permanent injunction prohibiting D.C. from enforcing the requirement. On September 28, 2017, the D.C. Circuit denied Washington D.C.'s request for rehearing.	Because the decision was not petitioned to the Supreme Court for review, Washington D.C. is now effectively a "shall-issue" jurisdiction.
