

AMMO REGULATIONS FAQ's

Ammo regulations go into effect
July 1, 2019.

Q

Can Californians purchase ammunition outside of the state and bring it back?

Do I need a California Driver License or California ID to purchase ammo?

Are CCW holders exempt from the ammunition background check requirements?

How much will the required background checks cost?

A

NO. You may, however, purchase ammo and have it delivered to a licensed vendor in California to pick up.

Under California law, NO; BUT CA Department of Justice has independently indicated one will be required as of July 1, 2019.

NO, exemptions from ammunition background checks are limited to firearm-related businesses and identified law enforcement personnel.

Up to $1 for those with a valid CA Driver License AND at least one firearm registered with that ID. Up to $19 for a full-scale background check.
